

What About Me

Emily Osment

The city is sleeping
But I'm still awake
I'm dreamin', I'm thinkin'
What happened today
Is it right?
I fold into the night

The flashbacks, the pictures
The letters and songs
The memories
The heart that you carved on the wall
It's a shame
Now that nothing's the same

Now the bridges are burned
And we're lost in the wind
It's time that we sink or swim

What about you?
What about me?
What about fairytale endings?
Were you just pretending to be?
I'm wondering
What if we tried?
What if I cried?
What if it's better tomorrow?
What if I followed your eyes?
I'm wondering
What about me?

You said it, you meant it
You hung up the phone
The talking in circles
It set it in stone
You were gone
We were wrong all along

Now the past is the past
And the bruises may fade
These scars are here to stay

What about you?
What about me?
What about fairytale endings?
Were you just pretending to be?
I'm wondering
What if we tried?
What if I cried?
What if it's better tomorrow?
What if I followed your eyes?
I'm wondering
What about me?

Stay awake
You'll fade away
I'm not afraid
Anymore

What about you?
What about me?
What about fairytale endings?
Were you just pretending to be?
I'm wondering
What if we tried?
What if I cried?
What if it's better tomorrow?
What if I followed your eyes?
I'm wondering
What about me?

The city is sleeping
But I'm still awake
I'm dreamin', I'm thinkin'
What happened today
Is it right?
