Know we would rise up

Against this train wreck and take a stand

To sing "The Star-Spangled Banner"

Even if it means sittin' when they raise the flag

Yeah Shout to everybody Who's been on this trip with me You don't have to agree But if you feel like me Someone get this Aryan a sheet Time to bury him, so tell him to prepare to get impeached Everybody on your feet This is where terrorism and heroism meet, square off in the street This chump barely even sleeps All he does is watch Fox News like a parrot and repeats While he looks like a canary with a beak Why you think banned transgenders from the military with a tweet? He's trying to divide us, this shit's like a cult But like Johnny, he'll only unite us 'Cuz nothing drives us inside like this fight does Similar to when two cars collide 'cuz our spirits are crushed And this spot's a tight one But here the jaws of life come to pull us from the wreckage That's what we get pride from When we can't wear stars and stripes cuz this type of pickle we're in is har d to deal But there's always tomorrow still If we start from the scratch like a scab for scars to heal And band together for Charolettesville And for Heather, fallen heroes, fill this wall with murals Nevada get up, hit the damn resetter Let's start from zero, this is our renewal Spray tan, get rid of, get a brand new, better America, and here's to where it all... This is where it all began, all began (stand up!) Here's to the land that made me And made me who I am, who I am (hands up!) Here's to the land that raised me From the cracks in the road that drove me There's no place like home Didn't wanna piss your base off, did ya? Can't denounce the klan, 'cuz they'd break off with ya You stay on Twitter, way to get your hate off, Nazi I do not see a way y'all differ And all you got are race cards, bigot The swastika with your name carved in it Should be your trademark, 'cause hate's all you played off And you just lick the plate off So I guess it pays to feed off of chaos So basically, you ate off Hitler! But you ain't ruining our country, punk Or takin' our pride from us, you won't define us 'Cuz like a dictionary, things are looking up So much, got a sprained neck,

This man just praised a statue of General Lee
'Cause he generally hates the black people, degrades hispanics
Take it back to the Shady national convention
Wish I would spit on it before I went to shake his hand
At the event or maybe had the wherewithal
To know that he was gonna try to tear apart
Our sacred land we cherish and stand for
So, hands in the air, let's hear it for
The start of a brand new America
Without him and be proud of where we're from
And here's to where we all

And here's to where we all began, all began (stand up!)
Here's to the land that made me
And made me who I am, who I am (hands up!)
Here's to the land that raised me
This one for the only place that really knows me
From the cracks in the road that drove me
There's no place like home

I won't give up
I won't give up on my home, that so many died for
You already know that I won't give up
I won't give up on my home, that so many died for
You already know
There's no place like home, no place like home
Wherever I go, no place like home
No place like home, no place like home
Wherever I go (yeah)

And here's to where we all began, all began (stand up!)
Here's to the land that made me
And made me who I am, who I am (hands up!)
Here's to the land that raised me
This one for the only place that really knows me
From the cracks in the road that drove me
There's no place like home
