Eminem

Yeah

I'm Tryin to catch me sumthin

I'ma catch you sumthin

nigga that watch is nice

that's what you bought for me

that chain is nice

that's what you bought for me

them earrings is nice

That's what you bought for me?

Take that shit off, move I'll break you off properly

I get mine the fast way, ski mask way

Make money

Make money, money, money

nigga if you ask me

It's the only way

Take money

Take money, money, money

You wanna spray at me? Go head

The last nigga that tried

Got hit, keeled over, and bled 'til he died

Ya little sister callin you stupid

Reason why?

Her and ya momma in the livin room now hog-tied

I came up wit two new ways to get rich I cant wait

Got a brand new SIG and that old thirty eight

I be scheming to put a lil' bread on my plate

Watchin Dre serve skunk through the hole in the gate

I stick a nigga for his shine sell em' back the next day

You thought I really wanted ya pussy bitch please

This is stash house, jack pot, leave her them keys

My black g-unit hoody just reak of marijuana

Cocaine comin out my pores in the sauna

Im serious man I'm so sincere

This the flow right here that fucked up Jeffery's career

Make money, take money

Yeah nigga yeah

nigga that watch is nice

that's what you bought for me

that chain is nice

that's what you bought for me

them earrings is nice

That's what you bought for me?

Take that shit off, move I'll break you off properly

Make money

Make money, money, money

nigga if you ask me

It's the only way

Take money

Take money, money, money
