

Southern Dreamer

Emm Gryner

Waste it all in Reno or laugh it down the drain and I am
Standing right beside you now
Morph into a creature that no one understands and I will
Lay my life beside you now

And you're racing again like there's no tomorrow
Only an end

Run run run southern dreamer
If ever I had a saviour it was you
Run run run southern dreamer
Whenever I need a detour to the truth
If ever I had a savior it was you

Blue moon over Malibu
Drown it in the ocean
And I am standing right beside you now
Work it out on the 405
No one here's waking up to die and I'll
Lay my life beside you now

And you're racing again like there's no limitation
Round the California bend
