No Sign of Life

Emma Bunton

I wake up crying and I think of u There's something dying and my world lines broken in two A voice says get out of bed, but instead I lay back and go out of my head.

I've never been here at the crying stage Was I the fool who never turned to read the last page And now it's another day You're gonna, pay for the love that I gave away Baby it's all that I can do To hold back the love I feel for you All I can think about is getting through Now that I know that there's

No sign of life Living without you No sign of life Can't seem to face the truth No sign of life Cant breath without u No sign of life So how am I gonna get through

No more pretending that my luck has changed, Won't see me crying but the tears still flow through my veins I know that I'm getting strong Cos the tears that u see wont be there too long Baby it's all that I can do for you To turn back the hate I keep for you Now all I can think about is getting through Now that I know there's
