

Pontoon

Emma Louise

Dip my head
In the water
Feel my thoughts
Wash over me, over me

And I'm ready for disaster
I see you standing
Over me, over me

And I'm ready for disaster
I see you standing
Over me, over me

And I never meant to be the girl who broke your heart
I know I've been bad and did you wrong
And now I'm all alone
Never meant to be your stepping stone
So lay with me now I'll tell you how it went
All the thoughts that were running through my head
I'm a little bit overwhelmed
Forgive me if I try to ask you for help

I'm wrong
I'm wrong, wrong, wrong

And my body
Feels your anger
Like a fire
Burning deep burning deep

I've been foolish
Like a child
I hear them laughing
Over me, over me
