

My Empire

Emmelie de Forest

Ohhh, ahhh

Are you crying?
And everyone's afraid to speak
It feels like dying
But hope is never out of reach

I wanna radiate
Like the sun again
And start anew
And if I fall from grace
I won't be afraid
I'm coming through

You can take my crown
But you won't get inside of my head
You can break me down
And it will rise

My empire
My empire
My empire
And it will rise again

It's so quiet
But still water's running deep
And there's a riot
Reaching deep inside of me

I wanna radiate
Like the sun again
Let's make anew
And if I fall from grace
Never be afraid
I'm coming through

You can take my crown
But you won't get inside of my head
You can break me down
And it will rise

My empire
My empire
My empire
And it will rise
My empire
My empire
My empire
And it will rise again

Again
It will rise
Again

(Here I go, here I go)
My empire
(Here I go, here I go)

My empire
(Here I go, here I go)
My empire
(Here I go, here I go)

My empire
My empire
My empire
And it will rise
My empire
My empire
My empire
And it will rise

And again (my empire)
And again (my empire)
And again (my empire)
And it will rise again
Again.
