

Someday My Ship Will Sail

Emmylou Harris

Life is just a passing moment
On an never ending trail
Though my pathway wanders for a heart
Someday my ship will sail

But I will walk this road awhile
And I will walk it with a smile
I will take it in my stride
Someday, I'll be satisfied

There's eternity before me
Just beyond the darkening veil
Oh my spirit hollers to go on
Someday my ship will sail

But I will walk this road awhile
And I will walk it with a smile
I will take it in my stride
Someday, I'll be satisfied
Someday, I'll be satisfied
