... and as if awaken from eternal sleep he sought a mentor for he no longer knew his position

"It is time after miracles and I am its prophet I have not come to cure but to bear witness decease"

"It is the place where blood and soil lie beyond the boundaries of the sun and I am its prophet I cast the shadow I absorb the light"

"I am the prophet I bear witness I absorb I cry"

"As I die
I shall burst wide open
As I die
I shall release the apocalypse
my prophecy
Thus, I hold on to faith
Thus, I keep the hope That it will prosper and devour"

"It is time after miracles and I am its prophet I have not come to cure but to bear witness decease"

... and pain joined his urge to perceive