

Forbidden You

Emphatic

Poison from your lips could kill
Inside your heart a burning chill
All I know that's right was just erased
Permanently stained are we
Burning so far underneath
Darkened ties behind an angel's face

You can't take my life

Forbidden all the time to be
Forbidden what you ask of me
Forbidden you, the air that I must breathe
All we are, we have been close
Is lost between the both of us
Forbidden you from being the death of me

Trapped up with a beauty queen
Crawling through my darkest dreams
Whispers in my ears, undressing me
Suddenly I scream your name
Close my eyes and you just disappear
You can't take my life

Forbidden all the time to be
Forbidden what you ask of me
Forbidden you, the air that I must breathe
All we are, we have been close
Is lost between the both of us
Forbidden you from being the death of me

Forbidden you
Forbidden you
