

There's No Need

Empire of the Sun

Really, there's no need to choose sides
We are on the same team
Really, there's no need, it's fine
We are so unusual
Really, there is no need to be kind
This letter hold the heartbeat
Really, there's no need to choose sides

(I believe, I believe, I believe)
I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
I think I lost the touch of us behind
(I believe) I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
And I'm flying, and I'm flying

Really, there's no need to choose sides
We are on the same team
Really, there's no need, it's fine
Everything is changing
Really, we only cross our eyes there

(I believe, I believe, I believe)
I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
I think I lost the touch of us behind
(I believe) I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
And I'm flying, and I'm flying
(I believe)
I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
I think I lost the touch of us behind
(I believe) I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
And I'm flying, and I'm flying

Hey, my lonely jealous eyes
Cold steel like it's raining light
Say, I'm going out tonight
You know now I'm caught alone
Hey, I'm only half surprised
Unreal like it's in the light
Say, you hear me out there crying
So he'll laugh, be in your underground.
Hey, my lonely jealous eyes
Cold steel like it's raining light

I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
I think I lost the touch of us behind
(I believe) I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
And I'm flying, and I'm flying

I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
I think I lost the touch of us behind
(I believe) I think I said goodbye to my soul tonight
And I'm flying, and I'm flying
