

I Want Blood

Empires

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

Desperate and a little delusional
You put my heart to the grindstone.
I'm waiting anxiously outside your home.
Oh dear, the biggest of all fears,
You wish to hell I was not here
You wish to hell and I appear, oh dear

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

Quiet now, You're sucking the charm out.
I tried the "get you to love" route, but now the monster in rage holds me down.
Anger's a lesser disaster, the truth is I've got a fever
Your scream insanity, I'll be right there.

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

But we've got trouble now
I look for answers, but there's nothing I will see.
No matter how far away, everywhere you seem.
A mirror arrangement, in my eyes and you repeat,
And it tempts me to believe...

And I want blood, blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you
