

Modern Love

Empires

I've got a secret I've been dying to leak.
Oh it's a killer to keep
My crime occurred when rationality slept.
I had enough to be dead.

Then I heard a rumor I felt was right.
Before the public had spied you're spinning multiple lies.
Lets get down to the love tonight.
You wear your lovers eyes, and I'll be wearing mine.

Maybe you can fool your momma, but you won't be fooling me.
I've always seen you coming, thinking you were indiscreet.
And while you've been misbehaving,
I'll be fooling with you...

I've got a secret I've been dying to leak;
now it's a pleasure to keep.
My crime occurred when rationality slept...
now it continues to rest.

Baby, you're the fool tonight
