

Under The Bright Lights

Empires

Everyone's dressed in the scenery.
I can't stop looking. We blend in.
Everyone's right where they've got to be.
Under the bright lights, I want you.

Oh, don't you mind the war tonight.
We'll watch the sky explode tonight.
Oh, don't you mind the war tonight.
We'll watch the sky explode in high.

Questions are shot to the heart of hell.
Elephants falling and burning.
Hold me and watch the apocalypse.
Baby, we did this... don't miss it.

Where have you been?
