

Everyday

Empty Tremor

nowadays it's not easy to be truly understood by someone you can say that you're lucky when you find that's precious friend by your side amen for something you don't believe seeking your way and your freedom everyday let me land you everyway as a part of me everyday with your freedom trusting me as my best friend for life here i stand as a man to tell you how i feel a future could be counting the rules of society building the path for our freedom

everyday with a freedom having trusting each other as best friends to you expect my passions and it leads you to my heart cuz without you they would fall a part i'm onto seize the day now i see future in your eyes i've been living in a dream with this (?) life follow me in this dream of mine one more time

amen for something we don't believe seeking a way and a freedom

everyway as a precious part of me everyday with your freedom trusting you as my best friend as my wife
