

Run

Empty Tremor

Run, fail and you'll be gone, there's no time for fun,
We know you can make it.
Run, trusting in no one, fighting has begun,
New blood will be taken.
We have placed our faith in you, your word's been taken,
You'll do what we want you to, if forced in the right way.

We're not the reason why you're losing your sleep,
These are the rules of new society.
We build new winners not accepting defeat,
And losers will die in retreat!

Run, more than you can stand, families depend on each of your decisions.
Run, 'till your senses drop, 'till your heart will stop,
As we steal your freedom.
Game is hard and rules extreme, wasn't us who wrote them,
So we see our hands as clean, and cope with everything.

We're not the reason why you're losing your sleep,
These are the rules of new society.
We build new winners not accepting defeat,
And losers will die in retreat!

We will change your mind, work to make you blind,
All will be fine if, you just let us try. Brainwash.
We will change your greatest dreams into ambition,
Turn your whispers into screams, if you will let us in.

We're not the reason why you're losing your sleep,
These are the rules of new society.
We build new winners not accepting defeat,
And losers will die in retreat!
