

In this wild world
where my soul seemed to be lost
in this wild world
where I thought to be alone
I met you
something new something that took me higher and I hope that it will last I'll do my best but please
stay
when I'll fall apart I know that you'll hold my hand and when I'll be afraid I'll have your sweet embrace
I met you
something new something I never had
and I hope that it will last So take care of you but please
stay!
In my world
stay!
In this world
stay!
In my world
stay!
My dear friend
till the end
oh please stay!
Oh please stay!
Oh please stay!
Oh please stay!
Stay!
In this world
Stay!
Come! Stay in my world
stay!
In my world
stay!
My dear friend
please stay
till the end
oh please stay!
My dear friend
oh please stay!
Till the end
please stay
