

The Last Day On Earth

Empty Tremor

Tell me, why is this world so confusing?
Show me the way out!
Calm and despair, still but yet so violent
In the air, fears take over you.

Delivered from my brain today is the news
I can't fight for my aims.
Never stand out! Hide in the crowd!
Every step I try to take is pulled down
by the fear of mistake
Wake up! It's time to Take some action! I need to fight for what I feel.

Take some action! Release the fire I have concealed,
Take some action! Chances will fade away,
if I don't make it today!

Calm and despair , still but yet so violent
In the air , fears take over you.

There is a girl, I can't explain, what I feel just
by hearing her name.
Don' t you be shy, give it a try!
There's no connection, no way through between will and the things that I do.
Wake up! It's time to Take some action! I need to fight for what I feel.

Take some action! Release the fire I have concealed,
Take some action! Chances will fade away,
if I don't make it today!

No escaping, why is this world so confusing?
Show me the way out!
Calm and despair , still but yet so violent
In the air, fears take over you.

Can I stand out in the crowd, 'n' raise my voice loud,
Will I ever be satisfied and be proud?
Will this thing ever end? And see me transcend
Every fear of mistake on which I depend.
Will I ever achieve the peace? 'N' will I ever be free?

Why am I so weak in my beliefs?
Or is my soul deceased?
It brings me to my knees.
One day I'll fight and have guts to take control
As I won't stand it anymore, 'n' reach for my goal.

What's the meaning of dreams,
if the target's too far to be seen?
Is it lack of ambition?
Is it simply the fear of defeat?

Here I stand, a new man,
'Till the end, nothing's gonna stop me!
Here I stand, a new man,

I'll pretend this is the last day on Earth!

So tell me, why is this world so confusing?
Show me the way out!
Calm and despair , still but yet so violent
In the air , fears take over you.

Let's start innovation by admitting the faults that I have.
Swallow your pride, you'll be alright.
Less talk and more action,
instinct leadership needs to be fed.
Wake up! It's time to Take some action!

I need to fight for what I feel.
Take some action!
Release the fire I have concealed,
Take some action!
Chances will fade away,
if I don't make it today!

Here I stand, a new man,
'Till the end, nothing' s gonna stop me!
Here I stand, a new man,
I'll pretend this is the last day on Earth!
