

The Timeless Night

Empty Tremor

How could it be!
It's just the same old story came to my eyes
Another tale is written by human ache
Hiding a crime it's so easy today
Another life is sacrificed with no blame.

You're trying to get some other answers

You that always read those pages acting like an Audience
Now you act a drama you've not created
A drama you've not created.

Tell me how could it be

How can they think of kill'n a man.
I'm standing here alone wondering why
I must die just to cover lies.

Timeless night, changes in light

Start to paint now her smile in the sky.
People have just found peace they're looking for Seeing a world with stripes i can feel their hate
Rising over there through those flighty minds
Not just anyone never understand my own
Innocence of mind, cloudy i realize
That i'll never see another paradise.

Can they keep a man for fifteen years with many Tears
'til he sees the light of one new day that will never Come
Will never come, will never come.

When it will come your hope is gone

You'll understand they're watching you.
Now it's the time you'll realize
Will see no future in your eyes.

Maybe they'll find other ways in their hearts

That could stop me from meeting my own death
Or there will be someone and may here stop
All this madness and let me be free.

Now, tell me how could it be

How can they think of kill'n a man.
I'm standing here alone wondering why
I must die just to cover lies.

They knock at your door, your arms are being held
Tight
Your rate's going slow, within a few minutes it
Stops.

How could it be!
