

Give me more

Empyr

When you're sleeping i'm awake
When you destroy i create
When you're burning i'm so cold
Can i cut the strings you're holding

When you're saving your last tear
I'm just dreaming of the night
When you're hiding in your fear
I can see the cuts on your knees

And it's always the wrong time, the wrong place
Always the same strength and weakness all about the words i won't hear

Why don't you give me
More

When you're saving your last tear
I'm just dreaming of the night
When you're hiding in your fear
All I see is the Moon rising

It's always the right fight, the wrong words
Always the moon melting the sun
It's all about the way we shiver
Why don't you give me

More

Then I'll give you the moon's light
We'll have good times tonight
We'll have good times
Then I'll bring you the moon's light
We'll have good times tonight
We'll have good times

More

Bring me back to life
Please heal me when i need it
Follow me in the light
Keep on smiling
Do you realize it's
Us against the world
Now keep on keep on
Dreaming, dreaming
Take me home now
Take me home now
Shock me cause i need it need it
Bring me back now
Bring me back now
Tell me tell me

What would you do if you were me

Then I'll give you the moon's light
We'll have good times tonight
We'll have good times
Then I'll bring you the moon's light
We'll have good times tonight
We'll have good times

When you're saving your last tear
I'm just dreaming of the night
When you're hiding in your fear
All I see is the Moon rising

Then I'll bring you the moon's light
Let's have good times tonight
We'll have good times
