

God Is My Lover

Empyr

Sleep, sleep, close your eyes
I'm the stranger lost in your deepest night
Breathe, breathe, till your lungs give out
You're not guilty of the love you had
Red tears, cold blue skin
Now you know how it feels to lose everything
Please, please sit here for a while
Do you realize you're the next in line
Martyr, hemophilia dreams
Now you know how it kills when you start to sink
Breathe, breathe till the end of time
You can't stop what's coming, what's in you now

Please, please sit here for a while
Do you realize you're the next in line
Breathe, breathe, till your lungs give out
You're not guilty of the love you had

It's gonna rain tonight, the kids go wild
You can hear it for miles, do you believe in me now
You've been hurt a hundred times, but here we are Whose side are you on? Can you believe in me now

I am the one who will break your religion down
I will pray for you'cause god is my lover now

Red tears, cold blue skin
Now you know how it feels to lose everything
Breathe, breathe till the end of time
You can't stop what's coming, what's in you now

You realize what's growing inside
