

New Day

Empyr

Faithful stars
Will shine again tonight
Can't you see the
Peaceful riot now

So leave your shelter
And wave the flag of change
And whisper your song
A scream in their heads
But who's to blame

Give me your pain
Choose a new name
Close your eyes and
Start again

It's too late for regrets now
It's a new day, a new life for you

Can you feel
The future in your heart
And can you live for
Every peace of light

When guns are barking
My words are bullets
Whisper my dream
A cry in their heads
But who's to blame

Give me your pain
Choose a new name
Close your eyes and
Start again

It's too late, for regrets now
It's a new day, a new life for you

It's too late, for regrets
It's a new day, a new life
It's too late, for regrets
It's a new day, a new life
