

The Voice Of The Lost Souls

Empyr

Pain is my passion
The streets are bleeding
Can you hear the sound of my bones breaking
Do you feel it

I can't trust myself anymore
I am someone else
Will your tears erase my sins
Can you save me

There's a stranger inside of me
I lose control
I lose my will

Soon I'll become the son of violence
Soon I'll become the voice of the lost souls

Will your tears erase all my sins
Now I've lost control
Will you hear the voice in my soul
Can you save me now

Stop watching my life I'm gonna live it
Stop watching your life you got to live it
