

Dissed Him

En Vogue

I dissed him, now I miss him
But I miss him because I dissed him
But he done me wrong and I'm not that strong
To resist him, so I kissed him
Should I have kissed him when I dissed him?
Should I have dissed him but I only miss him?
I don't really know but I'm all alone
And I miss him, I really miss him

Now that he's gone out of my life
I don't know whether to laugh or to cry
It cuts like a knife, everytime we say goodbye
I wanna die (No)
He's so deserving, but he's so self serving
He made me so mad, I know it's sad
Cuz now I want him so bad
But he lied to me and he knows that that shit ain't gonna fly w ith me
So, I

Weeks come by, he doesn't show
I can't breathe no more and my heart is aching so
Confuse emotions in every way
And if I could have him here then I'd see better days
If he could see what he's done to me
I can't sleep and I can't eat and I'm on my knees
Begging the Lord to find my love and send him back
Cuz now I realize he was the apple of my eye

So what do I do?
I'm so in love with you but somethings got to change
Can't go on this way
I spent plenty nights trying to make it right
Cause I love you boy and I want you in my life
It's like a melody in a song that's haunting me
The memories of deceit makes it hard for us to be
I need a little discipline in my life
Cuz my soul I won't sacrifice
