

Eyes Of A Child

En Vogue

I'm complaining, you're complaining, we all are complaining That the world needs to be a better place People slaying, babies paying a debt that they don't owe
And we just shake our heads and wonder why

Well, the so-called people that are tearing this world apart
They weren't just born that way
It takes some hard work and determination to learn how to hate And the first ones that it's taught to
Is to the eyes of a child

(na na na na na) is to the eyes of a child (na na na na) come on, now hit me

(do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do) oh, can i feel so love, yeah? (do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do) hoo, yeah

I point the finger, you point the finger, we all point the finger
That the cure is clearly out of our hands
The truth about it, and don't you doubt it Responsibility lies on you and me for woman, child and man

Well, the lives we lead are the determining factors Aboard this planet earth because yeah, yeah It's gonna take some hard work and determination to demonstrate true love
And the first ones that we gotta show it to
Is to the eyes of a child (na na na na na) is to the eyes of a child (na na na na) yeah y eah

(do do do do do do do) you and me (do do do do do do do do) do we agree? (do do do do do do do do) let's fill the world up with our love yeah y eah yeah (do do do do do do do) change the hurt (do do do do do do do do) clean the dirt (do do do do do do do do)

Well, it may seem like i'm preaching, but i'm only teaching From experience, that's something's money can't bay
So you'd better take a listen 'cause our love is missin'
But if we work together, we can work it out, work it out
