I Love You More

I love you I love you

I love you more than there are ocean grains of sand I love you more than there are voices in the wind I love you so I can't let go I love you so I want the whole wide world to know

It's not unusual to feel this way Sometimes I feel a bit insane I will confess I deserve nothing less than What you've given me so far

I feel a high when I am by your side My life's so bright like summer skies I dreamed so long to have someone like you And now you're here with me And it feels so good

1 I love you more than there are ocean grains of sand It must be love if I feel this way I love you more than there are voices in the wind Only love makes me do these things I love you so I can't let go Now that I have you I love you so I want the whole wide world to know

I always thought you were my soulmate And extension of my heart The angels say it's a spiritual thing We will never be apart

That's why I'm high when I am by your side My life's so bright like summer skies I dreamed so long to have someone like you babe And now you're here with me And it feels so good ooh

I love you more than all the ocean grains of sand I love you more than all the voices in the wind I love you so yeah Never let you go I love you so I want the world to know

I love you more than all the ocean grains of sand I love you more than all the voices in the wind I love you so Never let you go I love you so I want the world to know

I love you more than all the ocean grains of sand I love you more than all the voices I hear in the wind I love you so Never letting go I love you so I want the world to know
