

Sitting By Heaven's Door

En Vogue

My love,
We vowed to be together
Through the good times and stormy weather
Ooh, but if it falls around us
It shouldn't lose in you sudden darkness
You should always know I'll be

Sittin' by heaven's door (Mmmmm mm mm)
Waiting for you to come home (I'm waiting on you to come back home, my baby)
Sittin' by heaven's door (Ooh oh oh, baby)
Waiting for you to come home (I'll be waiting, no hesitating)

All I know is from this day on
We bond as one forever more
No way, no way we can lose, mmm
And any mountain we can move
With a team who beat the game called love
And, oh, oh, ooh, ooh

You know the time will come
When life will end somehow
And one of us is left without the other

If it happens to be me
Don't worry much, darling
I'll leave a passage to my heart and this is where I'll be
(With the key in my hand)

Sittin' by heaven's door (Hoo oh oh)
Waiting for you to come home (I'm waitin' for you, baby, ooh, yeah)
Sittin' by heaven's door (Hoo oh oh)
Waiting for you to come home (Waiting, baby, for you)

Sittin' by heaven's door (Hoo oh oh)
Waiting for you to come home
Sittin' by heaven's door (Hoo oh oh)
Waiting for you to come home

Sittin' by heaven's door (I'm waitin', anticipating, yeah)
Waiting for you to come home (Come on, come on, baby, ooh, yeah)
Sittin' by heaven's door (Come on home to me, yeah, ooh, ooh)
Waiting for you to come home (Come on, baby, come on, baby, come on, baby)

Sittin' by heaven's door (Come on, baby, come on, baby, come on, baby, come on, baby)
Waiting for you to come home (Come on, baby, come on, baby, come on, baby, come on, baby)
Sittin' by heaven's door (Now come on back, come on, baby, oh, come on, baby, come on, baby)
Waiting for you to come home (Come on, come on, come on, come on, bab y)
