

Noiseless bullet

Enbound

Speeding towards me
Noiseless, not a sound
A raging bullet
Comes to take me out

Eyes are spread
My body's paralyzed
My chest is pierced
I am marked for all of time

I feel my veins are flooded
Forever memorized deep in my soul

Leaving me in phases, wondering how
Lost my pace, is this goodbye?
All my faces figures nothing out...
...as I'm left alone

Swirling pictures take my lungs
Still I breathe
To make the fight
I stay outside my dreams

I am searching
Hunting, high and low
For my strength
To carry on, and on, for more

I feel my veins are flooded
Forever memorized deep in my soul

Leaving me in phases, wondering how
Lost my pace, is this goodbye?
All my faces figures nothing out...
...alone...
