Speeding towards me Noiseless, not a sound A raging bullet Comes to take me out

Eyes are spread
My body's paralyzed
My chest is pierced
I am marked for all of time

I feel my veins are flooded Forever memorized deep in my soul

Leaving me in phases, wondering how Lost my pace, is this goodbye?
All my faces figures nothing out...
...as I'm left alone

Swirling pictures take my lungs Still I breathe To make the fight I stay outside my dreams

I am searching
Hunting, high and low
For my strength
To carry on, and on, for more

I feel my veins are flooded Forever memorized deep in my soul

Leaving me in phases, wondering how Lost my pace, is this goodbye?
All my faces figures nothing out...
...alone...
