

The broken heart

Enbound

The feeling has begun
It rides upon the broken heart

It flies in me
When I you it once again
I'll make you believe
It's not the end

It cries in me
I see you once again
I'll make you believe
It's not the end

I'm craving for the door to open
I'm locked out in the dark
So close but still so far
I light up candles
Hate this way
And I fall down to sleep
I leave this world for you

The feeling has begun
It rides upon
the broken heart

It dies in me
I'll never see you again
I'll make you believe
It's not the end

It rhymes in me
I see you once again
I'll make you believe
It's not the end
