

Dying For You

End of Fashion

I saw you
You must be older than you look
Exposing your inner child

No longer a baby
Older than you look
You place your innocent hands over mine

Dying for you
Dying for you

Right back at beginnings
Wait another day
You talk to me in that crazy way

No longer a baby's soul, soul over mine

Dying for you
Dying for you
I'll wait for you
I'm only responding to the innocence in your eyes

Love is anyone's guess
These wants and needs we won't repress
I won't feel lonely today
Ooh and I want you so much

Dying for you
Dying for you
I'll wait for you
Dying for you

Ooh and I want you so much

Now you see me
I see them
They see you
All of these lovers do whatever it is they do
