

There is no place I can be oh so lonely I feel when this sadness surrounding my heart there must be a way on the end final day when I disappear in the dark I will never be free my whole life buried me don't know where I do belong
so I live in a dream it is not what it seems so it finally ends when I am... specially dying for my dreams god has chosen me the one there must be any other way I don't know where I belong...
