

Deep black clouds
Disappear into the void
So dark my soul will be
You always shine so bright

And I left it all behind on the right
She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain

And I left it all behind on the right
She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain
So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away,
So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away

I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void
I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void
Disappear in the void

Deep black clouds
Disappear into the void
So dark my soul will be
You always shine so bright

She'll wash away, she'll wash away my pain
So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away,
So I'm running, I'm running away, I'm running away

I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void
I'll disappear I'll disappear in the void
Disappear in the void
