

Standalone

End of Green

Sweet bad ugly morning
i'm tired again
everything's so boring i can't trust in pain because i stand alone in this life, all alone with my fight i stand alone in this life, all alone with my pride i stand alone in this life there's no heat in your light i stand alone in this life, there's no end to this strife look at the devil's tree oh, it looks like me, it looks like me and you there's something in your way how nothing can be saved all my life goes down
