

Dreamside

End of You

I want the same
Same as you
I don't care what they say
Or their expectations

Time is precious
It cannot be wasted
So why does it fade
Fade away

I need you today,
Take your pride and feel your shame with me
Don't you blame, walk away
There's no turning back, since you are lost again
Take your pride, feel your shame
For me it's the same, what you think or like
Make it true, let it be
Take your pride and feel your shame again

I have the right to
Come up and judge you
Since when you started to think?
That you can fool me
I have come too far, I can't turn back now
For me it's the same what you think or like
