

Down

Endless Blue

The sun set on your shoulders
As you turned away
Orange and purple pieces
Memories array

Green and yellow moments
The past is left behind
Somber and subdued
Nothing left to bind

Walking with shadows
I'm giving up
I cannot fight this darkness
Calling for you
I'm heading down
Slowly withdrawing
Losing my way
Painted in hues of sadness
Calling for you
I'm heading down

The clouds intoxicating
Extinguishing the light
Deepening the threshold
What once was strong and bright

No trace of recognition
Emotionless debris
Nature's taken hold now
The sky has set you free
