

Tomorrow

Endless Blue

And if I died tomorrow I'd want a day
To say all my goodbyes and to wish that I could stay
And if I left tomorrow I'd look behind And I'd leave a little bit of me, just something to remind
And if you followed me I'd say to go
'Cause too much life is left in you and too many debts you owe
But friendship never passes and love it never dies
My soul becoming yours, you'll see me in your eyes
'Cause friendship never passes and love it never dies
My soul becoming yours, you'll see me in your eyes
And if I died tomorrow, I'd live right on But I promise I'd still be with you, although my body's gone
And if I died tomorrow
