

Change is coming/change is coming now this world has forced you down/time is running time is running out/signs are all around life has shut you out/beat you to the ground been looked down upon/hope has led you on lifted your spirits just enough to break them down ALL VULTURES...you'll burn in HELL snakes and thieves with horns and scales all vultures burning passive dreams lead to discontent you're blindly led by ignorance all the malice burning in your eyes from failed attempts at living life YOU'VE FAILED AGAIN/you don't deserve this life you're failing/ALL VULTURES...you'll burn in HELL all the power you could have held all the love that you could have felt all the people you pushed to the side all for nothing/you've wasted your life WASTED/your life...
you're wasted
