

Zombies Never Think Twice

Endwell

You're running rampid through me
Infecting everything
My eyes are red, and I'm scared to death
You don't know what you're doing

This is a call to arms
And I have waited for too long

Maybe I'll never quit
Maybe you never meant a single thing you said
Well I've grown so sick of this
Confusion fills my head
And I'm dripping with regret
I do feel better if you never knew just how I felt
How I felt
Never knew just how I felt

Does he shake you like I shook you?
And how much do his words weigh?
Is he underneath you fingertips where I used to lay?
Do his lips taste like forever as you said mine did?
We were young, that's how it goes

My eyes are filled with tears
My hands are to my head
I know you're happy now
In someone else's bed
My paitence wearing thin
And I can't make sense of this
All I want is to be over you

I just need to know
So tell me

Does he shake you like I shook you?
And how much do his words weigh?
Is he underneath you fingertips where I used to lay?
Do his lips taste like forever as you said mine did?
We were young that's how it goes

That's how it goes
That's how it goes
That's how it goes

And when I dream you everynight
(That's how it goes)
You brek my heart but it's alright
(That's how it goes)
Ahnibriated by your sight
(That's how it goes)
Now this is the fight of my life

THIS IS THE FIGHT OF MY LIFE

All we had is dead and gone
All we had is dead and gone

ALL WE HAD IS DEAD AND GONE
ALL WE HAD IS DEAD AND GONE
