

Lock-Out

Enemy You

Growing up with no words to say Went to school dreading everyda y Watching all those boys and girls that were so predictable Went to the show for some fresh air If I belonged it would have to be there All new faces and anew I.D., a different scene but t he same old place So I went into the world Mimicked their actio ns and even stole their words I played along but when I spoke s omething got in my way My head spins thinking of all the places I've been I play the game but I can't win And I'm sick of this Will someone please open the fuckin door and let me in I grew up and I calmed down Years passed I went back to that town Know ing that things can change and that memories can betray But the y don't care and they're still sedate And talk of things with w hich I cannot relate The faces hadn't changed and everything wa s still the same
