

Every Sin (Leaves A Mark)

Engel

When I open up my heart you look at me like you don't care
I just need you to believe the words I say to you are true
I never will remain the little lover you once framed
'Cause you thought me to believe that I am here for you to bleed

Every sin leaves a mark
Inside the blackened heart
Every sin leaves a mark
Inside this scattered star

You gives me riddles i can't solve
You leave me questions without case
What I know is what I feel
I just cry when it gets real
I never will remain the little lover you once framed
It's clear what I have to do
That I am here for you to bleed

Every sin leaves a mark
Inside the blackened heart
Every sin leaves a mark
Inside this scattered star
