

The Right Thing That We Do

Engelbert Humperdinck

No one believed me when you said good-bye
You took my heart away and made me cry
Thinking of the moment when love came passing through
You promised to love me the way I love you (the way I love you)

Burning the candle every day and night
Hoping that you will change your mind
Heaven knows I love you, oh please please understand
The right thing that we do is in your hands

You should never ever try to pretend
Do the right thing
Don't you know it only hurts in the end
Do the right thing

If you give me your love we can make a new start
Remember there's a place for you in my heart

No one believed me when you said good-bye
You took my heart away and made me cry
Thinking of the moment when love came passing through
You promised to love me the way I love you (the way I love you)

You should never ever try to pretend
Do the right thing
don't you know it only hurts in the end
Do the right thing

If you give me your love we can make a new start
Remember there's a place for you in my heart

Nanana, nanana...
