

Brighter As We Fall

Engineers

I dream I'm falling
talk of failing
we've reached the point where there seems to be reason in you
I thought that maybe one day we could make this home beneath that warning lies a hunger no-one dares to feed

As we're found
brighter as we fall
there's no need to resolve blinded by your form

Give up too fast
even though
I would walk the line to see you seems so long ago
nothing bluer light of morning brings it home beneath that hunger lies a warning no-one cares to heed

Maybe the part that's broken lives on this moment is wide open mouthed, the words will flow
