Hooked inside is my old brown grey if it feels right then it feel right tied in tight in the same old way climb to new heights if it feels right

Is your faith steadfast challenged by a needle would you go this far

Will you hide make it go away is the light bright when you're inside change your side is it old brown grey does it feel right, if it feels right

With your face set hard
now you've gone too far
