

Three Fact Fader

Engineers

Here lies your scene resurrected for the good all that you are
is sending back the truth can't keep the pace
you're the second hand
make it worth it
be what you are
no need to change

So phased for so long
it's the scene
let me fight the liar that means harm just the same old excuses now everyone makes

Hide behind your screen have you got the shield to form keeps me aside
and makes himself worthwhile you're pride of place in a made up band
as you come to sow your bland seed
your three facts fade
