

Astophs Waiting

English Dogs

I go with a woman and here I am
Stuck in a prison cell with my piss pan
All in the East it's against the law
Although I thought she was a registered whore

What I deserve not this?
For just night of bliss

Islamic laws laid down
In the age of Pharaon's tombs
My punishment could be death
As Astophs plays his tunes

What I deserve for this?
For just night of bliss

The British Consul are trying their best
To release me from this eagle's nest
In the 20 century it's just not right
To condemn a man for this inborn sight

The Sentence is death no reprieve
A quiet hush as I leave
Condemned to die tomorrow at eight
With Astpohs grin I know my fate
