

Caveman Brain

English Dogs

You try to fight what you don't understand
You laugh at us 'cos we're a punk rock band
Just the same when you were at school
You did all your homework and you never broke a rule
So when you left school you had it sussed
You married a girl with a forty-two bust
Just eighteen and your wife's dropped a sprog
You're happy with a mortgage and a steady job
What happened to the kid and the big titted wife
When you lost your job they walked out your life

Caveman Brain
Here we go again
Caveman Brain
You're a sucker to yourself
You're a sucker to me
A sucker, sucker, sucker to all society
