20.000 Miles over the Sea

I was childish and unfair to you, my only friend I regret, but now it's too late I can't show you anymore, the things I've learned from you Cause life just took you away I'm asking why I'm asking why Nobody gives an answer I'm just asking why But someday, we'll meet again And I'll ask you... I'll ask you why, why it has to be like this I'm asking you why, please give me an answer Many years of stupid fights til we accept to see How it was and would always be Why it has to be like this, why we don't realize Why we're too blind to see the one who's always on our side I'm asking why I'm asking why Nobody gives an answer I'm just asking why Just tell me why, why it has to be like this That the good ones disappear I'm asking you why I'm asking why I'm asking why Nobody gives an answer I'm just asking why I'm asking why
