Thirteen Candles

Enochian Crescent

Now the night lays dark and cold Upon a world at sleep Across he world sweeps a crimson haze Now the virgin's seal is broken The fertility rite is complete And the seed is sown in a holy place

Born a child of the underworld The fire and flame Born a child of the underworld Desire and pain Born a child of the underworld Evil prevail Born a child of the underworld.....

Now the day is slowly fading The 12th night is comed Prepare soon the virgin shall give birth To the son of Satan, Child of Hell Spread the news across the universe

Satan's child is born tonight by womb untouched and pure All Hell rejoice the birth of the Son Laced in sin Child of Hell The spirit of lust and pain Baptised in sacred angel blood Now Evil can prevail

Born a child of the underworld The fire and flame Born a child of the underworld Desire and pain Born a child of the underworld Evil prevail Born a child of the underworld.....

So light the 13 Candles

[Repeat chorus]

So light the 13 Candles
