Through the storm like the wind we ride Leaving it all far behind Another war is straight ahead This fight will give us all None shall live , they all will fall When the new dawn arises, we stand tall

Fight! For our new dawn Ride! Kill them all Fight! For our new dawn Rise! And we stand tall

Feel your strength and let it rise
Hear the call of their demise
Let them feel your steel
Have faith my friend, this is not the end
Our time is near, we feel your fear
Because we will...

Fight! For our new dawn Ride! Kill them all Fight! For our new dawn Rise! And we stand tall

Nothing can stop us now
As we march towards the final fight
It waits us in the night
Our swords are taking lives
Giving us what is ours
Now the new dawn arises and we have it all

Fight! For our new dawn Ride! Kill them all Fight! For our new dawn Rise! And we stand tall
